QUIETLOVE

THE OFFICIAL PRESS KIT

Been at it since MySpace*. No Grammy, still* highly underpaid. Loving every second of it.

Brendan DiStefano (aka QUIETLOVE*) comfortably channels a fresh pop perspective through his poignant wordplay, honest self-reflection and raw vocal cadence. Quickly finding his passion for music at a young age, songwriting and production became more than just hobbies for the rising star. From landing his first publishing deal at 17 to performing at legendary venues throughout Canada and the US, the artist who once called himself "just a kid from Hamilton" is consistently breaking new ground, abandoning all comfort zones, and never looking back.*

Independently racking up over 4.1 million streams since 2021, QUIETLOVE draws a big sound out of his small-town bedroom studio roots. The next chapter remains unwritten, but needless to say, the future looks very bright.
